

HUGHES ATTACKS MEXICAN POLICY

tragedy would have been prevented. We strongly denounce the use of our soil as a base for alien intrigues, for conspiracies and the fomenting of disorders in the interest of any foreign nation but the responsibility lies at the door of the administration. The moment notice is admitted, responsibility is affected. For that sort of thing could not continue if the administration took proper measures to stop it. That responsibility the administration cannot evade.

"It was officially stated by the secretary of state in the Mexican note of June 20, 1916, 'that for three years the Mexican republic had been torn with civil strife; the lives of Americans and other aliens have been sacrificed, vast properties destroyed by American capital and industry have been destroyed or rendered non-productive; bandits have been permitted to roam at will through territory contiguous to the United States, and to seize without punishment or without effective attempt at punishment, the property of Americans, while the lives of citizens of the United States who ventured to remain on Mexican territory or to return there to protect their interests, have been taken, in some cases barbarously taken, and the murders have never been apprehended nor brought to justice.' What an indictment by the administration of its Mexican policy!"

Woelessly Neglected.

"And still we are unprepared! That unpreparedness in the midst of perils and after the experience of three years is a demonstration of an unpardonable neglect for which the administration is responsible.

"The government now has and must have most emphatically the unlimited and patriotic support of every citizen in the existing emergency. But unquestioning loyal and patriotic support of the government is one thing; approval of the fatuous course which the administration has followed is quite another. I cannot in this message adequately review that course; that I shall do later.

"No intelligent man is deceived by the temporary prosperity due to abnormal conditions and no one can fail to appreciate the gravity of the situation which we shall be faced when the war ends. We are alive to the imperative necessity of assuring the bases of honest business. I am in deep sympathy with the effort to improve the conditions of labor to prevent exploitation, to safeguard the future of the nation by protecting our women and children.

believe in workmen's compensation laws; in wise conservation of our national resources so that they may be protected, developed and used to the utmost public advantage, but underlying every endeavor to promote social justice is the indispensable condition that there shall be a stable foundation for honorable enterprise. American industry must have proper protection if labor is to be safeguarded. We must rescue our instruments of interests and foreign commerce from uncertainty and confusion. We must show that we know how to protect the public without destroying or crippling our productive energies.

Says Democrats "Narrow."

"To what agency shall we look for the essential constructive program on which our security and prosperity must depend. It is vain to expect it from the Democratic party. That party has not the national outlook. Both its traditions and dominating influences are fatal handicaps. I have no sectional words to utter. We are to elect a President of the whole country not of a part. The South, as well as the North, East and West, will be the gainers from our endeavors. But it is sober truth as I see it that as we go forward, we must make the Republican party the instrument of our advance. We want deeds, not words; far-reaching national policies. The Progressives have insisted on a responsible, not invisible government, efficient administration. I yielded to no one in that demand. I am eager to call the best ability of the country to our aid. For the conduct of the great departments, the executive is directly responsible, and there is no excuse whatever for the toleration of incompetency in order to satisfy partisan obligations.

"I am deeply appreciative of your endorsement. I find no difference in platform or in aim which precludes the most hearty co-operation and the most complete unity. It is within the party that the liberalizing spirit you invoke can have the widest and most effective influence. I solicit your earnest effort for the common cause."

Warm For T. R.

The letter to Colonel Roosevelt was as follows: "I warmly appreciate the cordial letter of endorsement which you have sent to the Progressive committee. No one is more sensible than I of the lasting indebtedness of the nation to you for the quickening of the national spirit for demand for an universal and out-and-out American and for the insistence upon the immediate necessity of a thorough going preparedness, spiritual, military and economic.

"I am in this campaign because of my convictions that we must not only frame but execute a broad constructive program and that for this purpose we must have a united party, a party inspired by its great traditions and consecrated to its loftiest ideals. I know that you have been guided in this emergency by the sole desire to be of the largest service to the United States. You have sounded forth the trumpet that shall never call retreat. And I want you to feel that I wish to have all the aid that you are able and willing to give. I want the most effective co-operation with all those who have been fighting by your side. Let us work together for our national security and for the peace of righteousness and justice.

"I enclose a copy of my telegram to the committee in which I have set forth my attitude. I shall later undertake a full discussion of the issues of the campaign.

"Hoping that I may have the pleasure of seeing you at an early day, I am, my dear Colonel Roosevelt, with cordial regards,

Faithfully yours,

"CHARLES E. HUGHES."

Chairman Pickens. Mr. Hughes has virtually decided. It was learned today, on the man who will become the party's next national chairman and probably will announce his name in a day or two. Branch headquarters, it is expected, soon will be established in Chicago and probably also on the Pacific Coast. Joseph E. Keating, former national Republican committeeman from Indiana and Charles Warren of Detroit have been strongly urged for vice-chairmanship to take charge of the Chicago office and Ralph E. Williams, Republican committeeman from Oregon, as a vice-chairman for the Pacific Coast headquarters, which may be at San Francisco.

ABANDONED CONSULATE LOOTED AT NOGALES (By Review Leased Wire.)

NOGALES, Ariz., June 27.—Mexican soldiers in Nogales, Sonora, tonight looted a house occupied until recently by Frederick Simpich, United States consul. The house is the property of Ignacio Bonillas, assistant minister of public works in the Carranza cabinet, from whom Consul Simpich leased it. Citizens here tonight took steps to relieve 15 American refugees who are relieved from the interior, many of them in destitute circumstances. Several said they had remained in Mexico in an effort to save their property until convinced that to stay any longer would endanger their lives.

NEWSPAPERMAN IS FREED BY MEXICANS

MEXICO CITY, June 27.—Daniel Dillon, an American newspaperman who was imprisoned here several weeks ago by the Carranza government, was released from custody today.

40,000 MEXICAN TROOPS CIRCLE PERSHING

Will Make Big Stand Near Chihuahua. Have Guns Mounted 20 Miles From Expedition

(By Review Leased Wire.)

EL PASO, June 27.—Mexican reports tonight indicate that General Carranza's army corps of the north, has practically completed the disposition of his troops in preparation for possible hostilities with the United States. The command, the strength of which is variably estimated from 35,000 to 40,000 men, has been distributed along the two railways of Chihuahua, the Mexican Central and the Mexican Northwestern and in the Santa Maria River valley in such a way as to menace the American line of communication and present an obstacle to a possible American drive toward Chihuahua City.

Chihuahua City Sacred.

For more than a week troops have been concentrated in strategic points north of Chihuahua City along the Mexican Central, running directly south from Juarez. Preparations to oppose any American attempt to use the Mexican Northwestern road, which extends in a sweeping semi-circle, the arc of which bends to the west, from Juarez, through Casas Grandes, Madera and Santa Isabel, to Chihuahua City, also have been made by the stationing of large forces at Bustillos and Guzman. At both of these places several thousand men are said to be encamped, the palpable object at Guzman, about 50 miles southwest of here, being to block any effort to use the road to transport supplies from the border to General Pershing's column, and that at Bustillos, 70 miles west of Chihuahua City, to prevent General Pershing's dispatching troops by rail to take the state capital.

Thousands Near Pershing.

Several thousand soldiers, including some artillery, are said to be bivouacked in the hills above Santa Clara Canyon, about twenty miles east of Naniquipa, their guns commanding the canyon through which passes the wagon road south toward Chihuahua from General Pershing's chain of bases.

Aeroplanes, Trucks Active.

To offset these maneuvers, General Pershing has gathered at Colonia Dublan more than two hundred motor trucks, with which, in an emergency, he can transport infantry across country rapidly. The line of communication has been shortened, the southern base being at El Valle, about 200 miles south of the border. Mexicans traveling over the motor truck trail in the zone occupied by the Americans are subjected to the most rigid examinations, and the American fleet of aeroplanes sent south from the base at Columbus, into Mexico are making daily reconnaissance flights.

The Mexican de facto government still has hopes, however, that the problem will be solved by the withdrawal of the American troops from Mexico, according to a telegram received at the local consulate from Mexico City. It pointed out that "a very favorable impression had been produced by General Trevino's report of the withdrawal of the punitive forces from Bachimora and San Geronimo and added the conclusion was generally drawn from General Trevino's report that the Americans were under orders to return to the border for patrol duty in their own territory.

40,000 Indians to Fight U. S.

Other dispatches to Consul Garcia from the capital said that if the Americans attempt to invade Mexico, they will find opposing them 40,000 full blooded Indians, "direct descendants of the forces that four centuries ago resisted the march of Cortez." "Indignation is felt in official circles over a report from Mazatlan that an American war vessel entered the harbor there and neglected to give the customary salute," the message concluded. "It is to be hoped explanations will be tendered."

Considerable excitement was caused in El Paso today by rumors that American troops had clashed with Carrancistas in the Santa Maria river valley, east of Colonia Dublan, and that a number of Mexican prisoners had been taken to the American field headquarters. However, the reports were denied tonight by both American and Mexican military authorities here and reports from the expeditionary base at Columbus said no prisoners were being held in Dublin.

Another report current in El Paso that two troops of the American detachment encamped at Carrizal were held in jail in Juarez apparently was exploded by a statement from Andres Garcia, local Mexican consul, who said the only negro detained on the Mexican side was a demented Jamaican, turned back by American immigration authorities.

EL PASO, June 27.—Forty eight thousand pounds of flour went across the boundary line into Mexico at Juarez today. The consignment filled nine wagons full, there being 7,500 sacks in all.

The flour was sold to the Carrancistas by an El Paso wholesale merchant. It is understood that it went over after Washington had been asked if there would be any objection to its crossing.

bordered formed posse and motored to the ranch to take up the trail of the bandits. Shortly afterward cavalry detachments were ordered from Las Cienegas, Alamo, Hueco and other outposts.

Lieut. Col. J. C. Waterman, commanding the Hachita district, telegraphed the following report of the incident to military headquarters here tonight:

"Reported that Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Parker were murdered near Double Adobe Ranch, 25 miles northeast of Las Cienegas. Civil authorities and detachments of cavalry from Las Cienegas, Alamo, Hueco and Culbertson's Ranch have taken up the trail. Mexicans suspected."

MEXICAN BANKS ARE TAXED BY CARRANZA

(Concluded on Page Seven)

MEXICO CITY, June 27.—General Carranza has decreed a tax on all banks of issue in the republic, payable in Mexican gold coin. The tax will begin July 1 and will range from 300 to 5000 pesos, according to the importance of the banks.
